- Camping Promotion: Promotes Scout camping in all Scout Troops in the Council as an important part of the Scouting program. This is done through troop visitation, Scout Show exhibits, Camping and weekend Corps and the "Where to Go Camping Guide," which this committee updates and works with the Publications committee to publish.
- Unit Elections: The Vice-Chief of Inductions chairs this committee. Contacts each Scout Troop to set up an O.A. election. A team from the committee then visits each troop and conducts an election, using the procedures set up in the Unit Election Ceremony in the O.A. Handbook. This committee is divided up into chapter committees, each with a chapter elections chairman.
- Activities and Service: The Vice-Chief of Program chairs this committee. Responsible for the planning and successful execution of all Lodge functions and service projects such as the Fall Fellowship, Annual Banquet, Rotary Scout Show, Spring Fellowship, cold Weather Camping, and Beaver Festival.
- Elangomat: Responsible for all aspects of the Ordeal, except Ceremonies. Recruit Elangomats and oversee the discharge of their duties. Responsible for preparing the candidates for full Lodge Membership; supports and encourages all new Arrowmen through the Brotherhood. Administers the Honor Elangomat program.
- Brotherhood: Contacts all Lodge members who are eligible for Brotherhood membership and helps them prepare for Brotherhood. The committee is responsible for the Brotherhood review and the distribution of information pertaining to Brotherhood membership. The members of this committee help through individual counseling with candidates, and should strive to involve as many Brotherhood and Vigil members as possible.
- Ceremonial: Responsible for all Lodge ceremonies. This includes site selection and preparation, training of characters, and proper execution of the ceremonies as set forth in ceremonial pamphlets. This should be done in such a way as to uphold the true meanings of the ceremonies.
- Drum Team: The Catawba Lodge drum team performs with or without the Dance team.
- Dance Team: Responsible for training and maintaining an Indian Dance Team for the purpose of upholding the tradition of the Native Americans, upon which the Order of the Arrow was founded. The Dance Team performs for Cub and Scout Groups, as well as schools and other organizations.
- Flute Team: Responsible for providing support during Brotherhood ceremonies, Vigil tapout ceremonies and campfire programs (as requested). The Flute team may also support worship services during Lodge events.
- Membership: Is responsible for the records of each member of the Lodge and all registrations for Lodge functions. The committee updates the membership records and prepares the information for the Lodge charter renewal in December.
- Publications: The Lodge Secretary chairs this committee. Responsible for the editing and publishing "Te Legend," the Planbook and the content and maintenance of the Web page. They also issue any special notices which may need to be mailed to Lodge members.
- Telecommunications: Makes telephone contact with members of the Lodge or Chapter two weeks prior to an upcoming event and maintain their support for the Lodge. Communicates urgent messages to the Lodge or Chapter membership.
- Spirit: Develops enthusiasm and involvement from all Lodge members at events.
- Indian Lore: Puts on Indian displays as fellowships.
- History: The Quartermaster chairs this committee. Maintains the history of the Lodge. Handles all recommendations with regards to memorabilia (i.e., design, quantity, pricing, cost and who can purchase).
- Finance: The Lodge Treasurer chairs this committee. Prepares a Lodge budget for the coming year and presents it to the Executive Committee at the October meeting. Handle check-in at Lodge events.
- Cook team: Prepares meals for all Lodge functions as needed. Coordinates all kitchen and dining activities.
- Special Committees: Committees created for special short term needs such as Nominations, Vigil, Dixie Fellowship, NOAC and Anniversary.
